DESIGNATED DAYS FOR SCHOOL VISITS: 2020 ROYAL SHOW- 22 MAY TO 31 MAY 2020

- 2.5 All buses are requested to park in the designated area within the grounds of Townhill Hospital. The grounds will be accessed via Townbush Road. Bus parking is free.
  - 2.6 The Royal Show is South Africa's largest commercial and agricultural exhibition which is coupled with an entertainment component. A visit to the Royal show is always stimulating and educational. In order for learners to achieve maximum benefit from the outing, it is suggested that Principals and Teachers set certain projects for the day.
  - 2.7 Should any school wish to make a payment in advance, Principals may send an email to accounts@royalshow.co.za indicating the number of learners and educators that will be visiting the Royal Show, a proforma invoice will be forwarded to the school for payment. Proof of payment and a copy of the invoice will have to be handed to gate control personnel at Townhill Hospital to gain entry into the Showgrounds.
  - 2.8 It must be noted that no alcohol or any item deemed (at the sole discretion of the Royal Show Security) to be hazardous will be admitted into the grounds. This includes, amongst others, knives, laser-lights, BB guns, sjamboks and firecrackers.
3. The schools must still comply with the policy on Excursions while undertaking the trips to the Royal Show Grounds and necessary approval must be sought from the Department.
  4. Measures are to be provided for security of all learners and teachers who will undertake the trip.

Kind regards
