THE KWAZULU-NATAL DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION SUSPENDS THE ACTING PRINCIPAL OF GROSVENOR GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL

The KwaZulu-Natal Department of Education has suspended the Acting Principal, who is the Deputy Principal of Grosvenor Girls High School.

The Department implements the suspension, with immediate effect, based on a recommendation made by the Independent Panel, that investigated the allegations of racism and financial mismanagement at the school.

"We are implementing the recommendations of the Independent Panel fully, we hope the findings and the recommendations thereof will become our point of reference for our education system", asserts the KZN Department of Education, Head of Department, Mr Nkosinathi Ngcobo.
