THE KZN DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION HOSTS THE 2023 MEN'S DIALOGUE

As part of celebrating Men's Month, the Department of Education in KwaZulu-Natal is going to host the 2023 Men's Dialogue at the Coastland Hotel in Umhlanga, tomorrow, Friday, 28 July 2023.

The aim of the Men's gathering is to focus on men's health and well-being, promoting positive male role models, as well as addressing social challenges that affect men, such as mental health, suicide rate as well as fatherhood, including the issue of absent fathers.

"This Men's Dialogue will give men a platform to ventilate their emotions and it will ensure that men receive recognition and an opportunity to reclaim their role as leaders, providers and protectors in our society. We envisage that this dialogue and platform such as this will assist in winning the battle against Gender Based Violence which has become a scourge in our society," said MEC Mbali Frazer.

The MEC for Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs, Mr Sboniso Duma is going to be the Key-note Speaker at the event.

The details of the event are as follows:

Date 28 July 2023

Venue: Coastlands Hotel in Umhlanga

Time: 09H00

The media is invited to cover the Men's Dialogue.
