THE KZN DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO HOST MANDELA REMEMBRANCE CELEBRATION

The KwaZulu-Natal Department of Education is going to host the Mandela Remembrance Celebration that will take place at the Teacher Training Centre in Durban.

The event is aimed at addressing 100 Boy-Learners on “Becoming future leaders through reading and literacy.”

The event will be addressed by the KZN Department of Education’s HOD, Mr Nkosinathi Ngcobo and is part of the implementation of the KwaZulu-Natal Education Reading Strategy 2020-2025 – Reading and Literacy Promotion, as well as responding to the latest findings on the inability of Grade 4 Learners to read for meaning and comprehension, a majority of these are boy-children.

The event will further include the distribution of Digital School Library ICT devices and reading and literacy advocacy materials, as well as school library trolleys.

The details of the event is as follows:

Date: Monday, 07 August 2023

TIME: 10H00

Venue: Teacher Training Centre in Durban- Ex-Dokkies, Main Hall, 321 ZK Mathews Road. Umbilo.

The media is invited to cover the Mandela Remembrance Celebration event.
